

AP photo

Business hits bottom

An unidentified New York City street peddler is pinned to the sidewalk by U.S. marshals, who grabbed him for allegedly selling counterfeit versions of name-brand watches. "Rolex" and "Cartier" are among the bogus timepieces that have been manufactured to fleece the public.